

Best Practice Adopted by Sonamukhi College 2016-17

When an employee of our college retires from his/her service, there is a custom of planting a sapling which is in vogue in our college. A solar panel of capacity of 3 kilo watt is installed to reduce carbon foot print in the surroundings. Institute also implements rain water harvesting as the college is situated in a draught prone area.